

ELIGIBILITY

Harris County has established the Harris County COVID-19 Relief Fund to provide much-needed relief to Harris County residents most impacted by the global pandemic.

The Fund is open to all eligible low-income Harris County residents, including those excluded by the CARES Act or immigrant households, and people who may receive Pandemic Unemployment Assistance but cannot afford to wait for months. The application will be open to the public on Wednesday, June 24, 2020.

Eligibility guidelines for the fund include those who have experienced adverse economic impact(s) related to COVID-19, AND are:

- Households below 60% of the Area Median Income (AMI), or are accessing public benefits that already confirm they are very low-income; or
 - Survivors of domestic violence, or
 - Survivors of human trafficking, or
 - Youth aged out of foster care, or
 - Those in homeless shelters.
- Applicants cannot have received benefits from any City of Houston or other Harris County program administered for the same purpose.
- Prioritized consideration for:
 - Applicants ineligible for unemployment insurance, or those that have applied and it will take too long to receive assistance to meet basic needs.
 - Applicants ineligible for CARES Economic Impact Payments, or those that have not yet received a payment and cannot wait for the assistance to meet basic needs.
